SPONSORSHIP AND EXHIBITION INVITATION

May 7 - 11, 2022 Beijing, China

Dear colleagues,

We are writing to invite you all as one of our sponsors or exhibitors for the forthcoming 39th Congress of the International Union of Physiological Sciences (IUPS2022), held on May 7-11, 2022. As the main event for the International Union of Physiological Sciences (IUPS), the IUPS World Congress conducts every four years, and the 39th congress is going to be hosted by the Chinese Association for Physiological Sciences (CAPS) in Beijing, China.

With the congress theme “Marvels of Life – Integration and Translation”, IUPS2022 will provide a perfect opportunity for physiologists worldwide to gather and share the latest discoveries in all fields of modern physiology. By this chance, attendees could have an excellent opportunity to understand the integration of physiological principles in life sciences and how such principles may be applied and converted into techniques and tools to improve health outcomes.

We invite you to join us in Beijing for the 39th IUPS Congress. You will have the opportunity to meet colleagues and friends, learn and share experiences, as well as enjoy the consistent hospitality from China

With very best wishes!

The Chinese Association for
Physiological Sciences (CAPS)
